

Birch plywood is Latvijas Finieris's core business where we invest in the latest technologies, research and innovations. We are committed to technological advancements, sustainable solutions, and products that deliver tangible value. Continuous product development tailored to market needs, combined with a personalized approach to each customer and project, keeps us at the forefront of the industry.

Contact info:

AS "Riga Wood Baltic"
Bauskas iela 59, Riga, LV-1004
+371 67 620 748
rwb@finieris.lv

Sales in 47 countries via 12 Riga Wood product development and sales offices worldwide 325,000 m³ of birch plywood delivered per year.

Birch plywood types: raw, with overlay, textured overlay, ready for painting, decorative finish, composite construction

Applicable across 30+ industries, including building, road transport, rail transport, sea transport, packaging, and wholesale sectors

Main applications in the building industry: formwork systems, precasting, loose shuttering, scaffolding, interior, furniture and stage solutions

9 mills in Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, and Finland

More than 2,400 employees in the Group

